Read the passage carefully and answer Questions 13-15

Penguins are amazing birds, but they cannot fly. Instead, they use their wings like flippers to swim very fast through the water. Penguins live in cold places, and many are found in Antarctica, where it is icy and freezing. They have thick feathers and a layer of fat under their skin to keep them warm. Penguins love to eat fish, which they catch by diving into the sea.

Baby penguins are called chicks. Their parents take turns keeping them warm and bringing them food. Penguins are also very social animals — they live in large groups called colonies. When it gets very cold, penguins huddle close together to share their body heat and stay warm.

13 What is the main idea of this passage?

- A Penguins are dangerous birds that live in the sea.
- B Penguins are interesting birds with special features that help them survive in the cold.
- C Penguins can fly faster than any other bird in the world.
- D Penguins only eat fish and never eat anything else.

14 According to the passage, how do penguins keep themselves warm?

- A They run and jump around to create body heat.
- B They swim in warm water near the equator.
- C They have thick feathers and a layer of fat under their skin.
- D They build warm nests out of sticks and leaves.

15 What does the word "huddle" most likely mean in the passage?

- A To swim together in the ocean
- B To crowd closely together for warmth
- C To fly away to a warmer place
- D To dig holes in the ice to hide

16 Which sentence uses homophones correctly?

Read the passage carefully and answer Questions 19-25

A Rainy Day Surprise

One rainy afternoon, Sofia was looking out of her bedroom window when she noticed something moving under the tree in the garden. She put on her raincoat and went outside to take a closer look. There, shivering under the tree, was a small, brown puppy with big, sad eyes.

Sofia quickly carried the puppy inside and wrapped it in a warm towel. She gave it a little bowl of water and some biscuits. The puppy wagged its tail happily and licked her hand.

'Mum, can we keep it?' Sofia asked hopefully.

'First, we must try to find the owner,' her mother replied gently. They made a poster with a picture of the puppy and put it up around the neighbourhood.

The next morning, a little boy named Diego knocked on their door. His eyes were red from crying. 'That's my dog, Biscuit!' he cried with joy when he saw the puppy.

Sofia felt a little sad to say goodbye, but she was happy that Diego and Biscuit were together again. 'You did the right thing,' her mother said proudly. Diego smiled and said, 'Thank you for looking after him. You are very kind.' Sofia waved as Diego walked away with Biscuit trotting happily beside him.

19 What did Sofia find under the tree in the garden?

- A A lost cat with white and orange fur
- B A small, brown puppy with big, sad eyes
- C A baby bird that had fallen from its nest
- D A shiny red umbrella left by a neighbour

20 How did Sofia help the puppy when she brought it inside?

- A She called a vet immediately for help.
- B She wrapped it in a warm towel and gave it water and biscuits.
- C She put it in a box and left it in the garden shed.
- D She gave it a bath and dried it with a hairdryer.

21 What does the word "shivering" most likely mean in the passage?

- A Sleeping deeply and quietly
- B Running around very fast
- C Trembling because of cold
- D Barking loudly at strangers

22 Why did Sofia and her mother put up a poster around the neighbourhood?

- A To sell the puppy to a new family.
- B To find the owner of the puppy.
- C To warn neighbours about a dog running loose.
- D To advertise their new pet grooming business.

23 How did Diego feel when he saw his dog at Sofia's door?

- A He was angry that Sofia had kept his dog inside.
- B He was scared and did not recognise the puppy.
- C He was very happy and relieved to find his dog safe.
- D He was disappointed because the puppy looked different.

24 Which word best describes Sofia's character in this story?

Read the passage carefully and answer Questions 13-16

Honeybees are incredible insects that live and work together in large groups called hives. Each hive has one queen bee, many worker bees, and a few drone bees. The worker bees fly from flower to flower, collecting sweet nectar and yellow pollen. Back at the hive, they turn the nectar into golden honey, which the whole colony eats during the cold winter months.

Honeybees also help plants grow by carrying pollen from one flower to another, a process called pollination. Without bees, many fruits and vegetables would not grow at all!

13 What is this passage mainly about?

A Honeybees work together and play an important role in nature.

B Honeybees are dangerous insects that should be avoided.

C Only queen bees are useful to the hive.

D Bees only make honey during the summer season.

The Lost Kite

Otávio spent all Saturday morning building a beautiful red kite with his grandfather. When they finally flew it at the park, a strong gust of wind snapped the string, and the kite sailed away over the trees. Otávio's eyes filled with tears as he watched it disappear.

'Don't worry,' said his grandfather. 'We can build another one together, even better than the last.'

The next weekend, they built a new kite, this time with a stronger string and bright yellow paper. When they flew it at the park, it soared higher than any kite Otávio had ever seen. He laughed with joy as it danced against the blue sky.

That evening, Otávio realized that sometimes losing something can lead to an even better new beginning.

22 What is the main idea of this story?

- A Kites are dangerous and should not be flown in windy weather.
- B Losing something can sometimes lead to a better new beginning.
- C Otávio's grandfather was upset about the lost kite.

The Little Star

High above the sleepy town,
A little star begins to glow,
It winks at children settling down,
And watches gardens grow below.

It cannot speak, it makes no sound,
Yet children wish on it each night,
For in the quiet dark all around,
That little star gives hope and light.

The Talent Show

Bernardo had always been shy about singing in front of others, but he loved music more than anything. When his class announced a talent show, his best friend Isadora encouraged him to sign up.

'You have an amazing voice,' Isadora said. 'Everyone should hear it.'

Bernardo practiced every day after school, even though his hands trembled just thinking about the stage. On the night of the show, his heart pounded as he walked out under the bright lights. But as soon as he began to sing, his nervousness faded away, and the audience listened in amazed silence.

When he finished, the whole room burst into applause. Bernardo realized that being brave sometimes means doing something scary, even when you are afraid.
